Where can I find the ALMA Science Verification targets and observing parameters?

John Hibbard - 2023-11-01 - Archive & Data Retrieval

A table of ALMA Science Verification (SV) targets and observing parameters is provided at the "Data -> Science Verification" link from the ALMA Science Portal. A description of the SV process and policies is given at

<http://almascience.org/alma-data/science-verification/science-verification-wiki-info>

Science Verification data can be searched and downloaded directly from the ALMA Science Archive interface at <https://almascience.org/aq>.
